GROWN IN DIRT, HAND-HARVESTED AND PACKED

A man and a child are working in a large, dark brown field. The child, on the left, is wearing a green shirt and dark shorts, holding a tray of small green seedlings. The man, on the right, is wearing a dark jacket and pants, also holding a tray of seedlings. They are standing in a row of newly planted seedlings. The background shows a line of trees and houses under a cloudy sky.
